FUND STAGE: BETA

The Evangelism Gap Fund

Whether it's $100 or $10,000, is your giving creating the greatest opportunity for more people to join you in eternity?

The Upstream Problem

Sin is humanity's greatest problem. Every culture, every nation, every person carries the weight of brokenness, rebellion, and separation from God. Sin within us drives the world's most pressing crises causing division, despair, and moral decay.

Address spiritual lostness, and the suffering tied to society's greatest problems—fractured families, substance abuse, human trafficking—begins to unravel.

Donors struggle to discern which organizations are most effective. There's over 1.8 Million non profits in the US alone. Too many still guess, stock-pick, and hope for the best. But just as funds revolutionized investing in the 1980s, bringing scale, efficiency, and impact — giving is ready for the same shift.

Billions of people still live without a clear witness of the Gospel. In many regions, it's not that the Gospel is absent — it's present but not prevalent. Small groups of believers exist, yet entire communities remain unreached. The most effective ministries are often the hardest to find — working faithfully, bearing fruit, but under-resourced and out of sight. Without shared measures of success, energy is wasted and opportunity lost. And too often, the chain from someone saying yes to Jesus to walking through the doors of a local church breaks before it starts.

Yet the most transformative work often happens quietly through ministries committed to clarity, accountability, and lasting fruit. Our role is to find them, fund them, and help them multiply their impact. A new moment for evangelism is emerging, and when we move together, the Gospel moves further.

SWGP Giving Funds unite world-class portfolio management with the Faith Driven content and community you trust—transforming generosity into impact.
